The Finest Company in the City

Detroit, Michigan – Enjoy an evening of fine dining, fine music and the finest company in the city. Mosaic Youth Theatre and DTE Energy Foundation will present Mosaic's 3rd Annual Magnificat Gala, Thursday, February 8th, at 6 p.m. at the Max M. Fisher Music Center. The Magnificat Gala is a culinary and concert event fundraiser to benefit the young artists of Mosaic Youth Theatre. The evening will begin with a strolling dinner featuring Chef Matt Young's showcase creations of South American, Middle Eastern, Asian and Central European culinary delights, and for the first time include a 15 minute LIVE Auction of one-of-a-kind Detroit treasures conducted by auctioneer Charlie Wickins!

Honorary Chairs and Hosts Matthew Cullen, General Manager of General Motors, and Karen Cullen, VP of Corporate Communication at Illitch Holdings along with Kevin Smith, attorney at Miller Canfield, and Reva Smith, Business Manager for Tech One, will host this very special annual event. The Mosaic Singers are celebrating their 10th year of joyous music making. Under the direction of Kenneth Anderson, young people from all over Metropolitan Detroit come together in a nurturing environment that fosters discipline, leadership and academic achievement while studying the choral performing arts. Their musical excellence has led to performances on stages throughout the state, the country and the three continents of Europe, Asia and Africa. At the Magnificat Gala, following a strolling dinner and 15 minute LIVE Auction, The Mosaic Singers will bring the power of a 60 voice choir and their unique brand of energy to a glorious evening of a cappella, classical, gospel and popular music in this special preview concert.

Complimentary valet parking is available for all guests. Business attire is recommended. Tickets are $125 per guest. For further information regarding Mosaic's 3rd Annual Magnificat Gala, or to purchase tickets, please call Jennifer Hillebrand at (313) 872-6910, ext. 4012.
