

MOSAIC SINGERS

Talent...Passion...Excellence

Mosaic Youth Theatre of Detroit's internationally acclaimed Mosaic Singers radiate a magnetic energy that has drawn listeners since the group's formation in 1996. With their collective voices raised in song, Mosaic Singers shift effortlessly from classical choral pieces, to goose bump-inducing gospel and spiritual works, to compelling contemporary tunes with a uniquely instinctive style that perfectly frames every note of every song.

Having performed at myriad major Detroit events (final game at Tiger Stadium, Mayoral Inauguration, Super Bowl XL festivities), Mosaic Singers have been afforded the opportunity to open for an incredible array of luminaries including Al Green, Sweet Honey in the Rock, Pete Seeger, The Temptations and Maya Angelou. Most recently, Mosaic Singers were honored with an invitation to perform at Governor Granholm's 2007 Inauguration.

Nationally, Mosaic Singers have performed in over 25 states, at The White House and The Kennedy Center. Internationally, they have represented the United States at the World Festival of Children's Theatre in Copenhagen, Denmark, performed at The Millennium Dome in London England and participated in cultural exchanges with Dakar, Senegal and Singapore.

Consistently delivering brilliant interpretations of previously written works, Mosaic Singers have also composed numerous groundbreaking original works of music of its own. Studio recordings such as Together in Love: Ten Years of Mosaic Music and the October '06 release, We Shall Overcome double CD, highlight some of the best original pieces Mosaic Singers have created over the years.

