

Make a Child's Summer Dream Come True at Mosaic Youth Theatre!

Anyone who's ever been to camp knows that it's all about having fun and safe experiences that change lives and create lifelong memories. No wonder Mosaic Summer Camp is one of the programs featured in the Detroit Free Press' Summer Dreams 2010.

This is the Freep's 18th annual Summer Dreams program, which together With the Skillman Foundation and the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation, is raising money to give kids the opportunity to experience and enjoy life in new and exciting ways.

Your donation is matched dollar-for-dollar by Skillman and Knight, providing scholarships for 7-10 year-old children to take part in full-day acting, singing and dance activities at Mosaic Youth Theatre of Detroit. Campers discover things about themselves and feel a unique sense of accomplishment that comes from working together to make art come alive.

Many children have never experienced the joys of summer camp. Give them the gift of a lifetime by sending a check or money order for $25, $50, $100 or whatever you can afford to:

Summer Dreams
c/o 610 Antoinette
Detroit, MI 48202

Please make sure to write Mosaic Youth Theatre in the check memo line in order to designate us as the beneficiary of your gift, and be sure to include your address, daytime phone and e-mail. You can also make a secure online donation with a credit card at www.freep.com/summerdreams.

Thank you for helping to make a child's summer dreams come true.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Rick Sperling".

Rick Sperling
Founder and CEO

P.S. The Detroit Free Press' Summer Dreams campaign began on May 9, 2010 and matching funds from the Skillman and Knight foundations will run out quickly. Please donate now to make a child's summer dreams come true at Mosaic Youth Theatre of Detroit.